

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

Magistrate No.
05M-1069-JGD

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JEROME PENROSE

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER OF DETENTION

March 31, 2005

DEIN, M.J.

The defendant is charged in a criminal complaint with being a felon in possession of firearms in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1). An initial appearance was held on March 28, 2005, before Magistrate Judge Collings, at which time the government moved for detention.

A detention hearing was held before this court on March 31, 2005, at which time the defendant was represented by counsel. At the hearing the defendant, through counsel, waived his right to a detention hearing at this time, and consented to the entry of an order of detention.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the defendant be DETAINED pending trial, and it is further ORDERED --

(1) That the defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) That the defendant be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and

(3) On order of a court of the United States or on request by an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is detained and confined deliver the defendant to an authorized Deputy United States Marshal for the purpose of any appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

This order is without prejudice to the right of the defendant to file a motion at any time seeking a hearing for the purpose of addressing the issue of detention, regardless whether there have been changed circumstances.
